An Institution in an Institution

A distinguished personality of authority, a forerunner, torch bearer, decision maker and guiding factor to the students. An embodiment of perfection honest to the core, humble in nature. His pragmatic approach with stoic silence to solve many issues in times of conflicting priorities ensured that the institution has grown in to multiples over the last few years. His contribution to instill confidence amongst the students to enhance their performance had resulted in valuable contributions by the students to society. His acumen as a teacher and attributes as a friend to the students and the co-faculty, has won him many laurels in the field of academics. He can be described in one word - "CUSTODIAN"
